

THIS IS LGBTQI+ HISTORY.

Michael Sam

Wednesday, October 5

6:00 p.m.

Foy Auditorium

Michael Sam, an NFL free agent and trailblazer who played college football for the University of Missouri is coming to Auburn University to serve as the keynote speaker for the 3rd annual LGBTQI+ History Month Kickoff.

Sam made history when he came out as gay ahead of the NFL draft, making him the first openly-LGBTQI+ player to be drafted in any major American sport.

This event is co-sponsored by the Cross-Cultural Center for Excellence, the SPECTRUM student organization, the University Program Council, and the University Writing and ePortfolio Project.

THIS IS AUBURN.

Diversity at Auburn University encompasses the whole of human experience and includes such human qualities as race, gender, ethnicity, physical ability, nationality, age, religion, sexual orientation, economic status, and veteran status.

The Cross-Cultural Center for Excellence is committed to providing reasonable accommodation in its services, programs, and activities. To request disability accommodation, contact the CCCE at least ten days in advance at (334) 844-2976 (phone), (334) 844-2856 (fax), or e-mail Stephanie Patterson at sjp0014@auburn.edu.
